

IT LET JUDGE DAVIS OUT.

IMPORTANT NEW FACTS ABOUT THE ELECTIONAL COMMISSION.

What happened at the meetings of the Four Judges—Judge Davis in Willing to Vote for Davis if He Will Accept—Judge Davis Suddenly Leaves Washington.

WASHINGTON, July 7.—A communication published in this issue of Monday, signed "Observer," as to the Electoral Commission of 1877, and the future of Judge Davis, has been a member of it. It induces me to think that it is time some other facts were made public bearing on the same matter.

I do not dispute any of the facts stated in "Observer" as to the universal expectation in both Houses of Congress when the Electoral Commission bill was introduced, and that Judge Davis would be the fifth Judge, and consequently the arbiter of the Commission.

The bill became a law on Monday morning, Jan. 20, 1877, by the signature of President Grant, which was communicated to the Senate a few minutes after its meeting at noon, with a special message from the President, and Judge Davis was named as a member of the Electoral Commission.

When Judge Davis had received in his room at the National Hotel the despatch announcing his election as Senator, he handed it to a gentleman who was in his room and remarked: "That lets me out of this Commission. I will not be a member of it." He then wrote to the President, and Judge Davis was named as a member of the Electoral Commission.

On Tuesday, Jan. 20, 1877, the four Judges met at the National Hotel. Judge Davis was named as a member of the Electoral Commission. He was named as a member of the Electoral Commission. He was named as a member of the Electoral Commission.

THE 100 CASES OF POISONING.

An Inquest Begun on the Body of Mr. David Welsh of Pottersville.

WHITE HOUSE, N. J., July 7.—Farmers warned like bees to-day in and out of the New Germantown Hotel, where Colonel Berke's inquest against the cause of death of Farmer David Welsh of New Germantown was held. Welsh was one of the 100 persons poisoned by something they ate in ice cream at an evening picnic of the Dutch Reformed Church of Pottersville three weeks ago.

Dr. Francis Angus attended David Welsh. He was one of the 100 persons poisoned by something they ate in ice cream at an evening picnic of the Dutch Reformed Church of Pottersville three weeks ago.

Dr. Francis Angus attended David Welsh. He was one of the 100 persons poisoned by something they ate in ice cream at an evening picnic of the Dutch Reformed Church of Pottersville three weeks ago.

MORE BOYCOTTERS ABRAIGNED.

Judge Barrett Orders the Prosecution of the Paper that Speaks for Them.

Seventeen Bohemian union bakers, who are accused of boycotting the bakery of the West End Bakery, were put on trial in the Court of Criminal Term yesterday.

It took four hours to get a jury. Thomas Edwards, a butcher, of 530 Third avenue, said he was prejudiced against the boycott in connection with the trial.

Assistant District Attorney Felt, in opening his case, said that three years ago, in 1873, he was a member of the jury.

On Tuesday, Jan. 20, 1877, the four Judges met at the National Hotel. Judge Davis was named as a member of the Electoral Commission.

On Tuesday, Jan. 20, 1877, the four Judges met at the National Hotel. Judge Davis was named as a member of the Electoral Commission.

TOMBS KEEPERS AND LAWYERS.

Authorities Trying to Find who are Chief Tombs Keepers.

Lawyer Keller produced before the Commissioners of Charities and Correction yesterday Owen McNeely, a tailor, who set out in an affidavit that his son James was arrested last autumn for larceny under the name of Keller.

On the strength of Corporation Counsel Lomb's opinion that the Commissioners of Accounts have power to call for books and papers from the city departments, and compel the attendance of witnesses, a subpoena was issued yesterday calling on Commissioner Squire to appear in the St. Mark building before the Commissioners of Accounts.

On the strength of Corporation Counsel Lomb's opinion that the Commissioners of Accounts have power to call for books and papers from the city departments, and compel the attendance of witnesses, a subpoena was issued yesterday calling on Commissioner Squire to appear in the St. Mark building before the Commissioners of Accounts.

On the strength of Corporation Counsel Lomb's opinion that the Commissioners of Accounts have power to call for books and papers from the city departments, and compel the attendance of witnesses, a subpoena was issued yesterday calling on Commissioner Squire to appear in the St. Mark building before the Commissioners of Accounts.

On the strength of Corporation Counsel Lomb's opinion that the Commissioners of Accounts have power to call for books and papers from the city departments, and compel the attendance of witnesses, a subpoena was issued yesterday calling on Commissioner Squire to appear in the St. Mark building before the Commissioners of Accounts.

THE BRITISH ELECTIONS.

GLADSTONE'S PARTY DISHEARTENED BY MANY TORY GAINS.

Scotland Still True to the Premier—The Agricultural Counties Electing Conservatives—Tories Gain Seats in the House of Commons.

LONDON, July 7.—The last hope of the Gladstonians, the vote in the counties, has failed. The English counties are going Unionist. The counties of Somerset, Warwick, Hereford, Derby, Denbigh, and Shropshire, in which the agricultural vote, have returned Conservatives.

The Conservatives have gained Portsmouth and Mowmouth, and the Gladstonians have gained the agricultural counties. The Tories have gained many seats in the House of Commons.

The Tories have gained many seats in the House of Commons. The Gladstonians have gained the agricultural counties. The Tories have gained many seats in the House of Commons.

The Tories have gained many seats in the House of Commons. The Gladstonians have gained the agricultural counties. The Tories have gained many seats in the House of Commons.

The Tories have gained many seats in the House of Commons. The Gladstonians have gained the agricultural counties. The Tories have gained many seats in the House of Commons.

THE SILVER QUESTION.

An Interesting Debate in the British and Colonial Chambers of Commerce.

LONDON, July 7.—An important meeting of the British and Colonial Chambers of Commerce was held to-day, at which there was an animated discussion of the silver question.

The meeting was regarded as highly important, and its influence upon the coming silver demonstration in Lancashire must necessarily be very strong.

The meeting was regarded as highly important, and its influence upon the coming silver demonstration in Lancashire must necessarily be very strong.

The meeting was regarded as highly important, and its influence upon the coming silver demonstration in Lancashire must necessarily be very strong.

The meeting was regarded as highly important, and its influence upon the coming silver demonstration in Lancashire must necessarily be very strong.

THE HOTTEST DAY THIS YEAR.

The Whole Town Perspiring and Uncomfortable—Small Hopes for Relief.

The young man that peddled out the weather on top of the Equitable building, where the thermometer is summer ranges from several degrees lower than pedestrians find it on the sidewalk below, has the unkindness to look pleasant yesterday as he marked in his register, "Hottest day this year in New York city."

All over the United States it was a healthy, well-developed summer's day. It was 95° at Pittsburgh, at Keokuk, at Omaha, and at Albany. Chicago was in luck, perhaps as a reward for listening to Sam Jones, for the last twenty-four hours there was a fall of 24°.

At New York, the thermometer was 95° at Pittsburgh, at Keokuk, at Omaha, and at Albany. Chicago was in luck, perhaps as a reward for listening to Sam Jones, for the last twenty-four hours there was a fall of 24°.

At New York, the thermometer was 95° at Pittsburgh, at Keokuk, at Omaha, and at Albany. Chicago was in luck, perhaps as a reward for listening to Sam Jones, for the last twenty-four hours there was a fall of 24°.

At New York, the thermometer was 95° at Pittsburgh, at Keokuk, at Omaha, and at Albany. Chicago was in luck, perhaps as a reward for listening to Sam Jones, for the last twenty-four hours there was a fall of 24°.

A TOWN SURROUNDED BY BLAZING TIMBER—THE INHABITANTS ESCAPE ON A TRAIL.

MILWAUKEE, July 7.—Forest fires are again raging in the northern part of this State.

Early this afternoon the little village of Homestead, in the northwestern part of the State, was surrounded by a fire that swept in from the surrounding forest.

The village contained only 200 inhabitants, having grown up about the mill that was owned by the lumber company.

The village contained only 200 inhabitants, having grown up about the mill that was owned by the lumber company.

The village contained only 200 inhabitants, having grown up about the mill that was owned by the lumber company.

The village contained only 200 inhabitants, having grown up about the mill that was owned by the lumber company.

SHOT HIS BOY AND HIMSELF.

THE SAD END OF A TAILOR'S DREAM OF GETTING RICH IN WALL STREET.

Abandoning His Trade to Keep the Men of the Times—At One Time $15,000 Ahead—The Boy's $200 Will Bury the Two.

One Sunday afternoon in February a tall man, dressed in well-fitting threadbare clothes, led a 14-year-old boy up the steps of 104 West Washington place.

They gave the name of Werner. The father's name was Max Joseph Werner. The boy's name was Joseph Max Werner. Everybody called him Joe.

They gave the name of Werner. The father's name was Max Joseph Werner. The boy's name was Joseph Max Werner. Everybody called him Joe.

They gave the name of Werner. The father's name was Max Joseph Werner. The boy's name was Joseph Max Werner. Everybody called him Joe.

THOUGHT HE HAD KILLED HER.

Dr. Kierman Commits Suicide when his Sweetheart Drops Wounded to the Floor.

PITTSBURGH, Sept. 7.—A sensational sequel to the suicide at Latrobe yesterday has just been learned.

The husband of the woman who was killed at Latrobe yesterday has just been learned.

The husband of the woman who was killed at Latrobe yesterday has just been learned.

The husband of the woman who was killed at Latrobe yesterday has just been learned.

The husband of the woman who was killed at Latrobe yesterday has just been learned.

ENCOURAGING BOYCOTTING.

A MASS MEETING TO CONDEMN JUDGE BARRETT'S ACTION.

In answer to a call issued by the Central Labor Union, 2,500 men crowded into the big hall of Cooper Union last night. The purpose of the meeting, as announced by Robert Blaisdell, the Chairman, was to express the indignation of workmen against Judge Barrett and the jury who found the five men guilty of boycotting Thiel's saloon in Fourteenth street.

A brass band on the platform played several lively airs, and then about thirty men and half a dozen women marched in and took seats opposite the musicians. The lights flared up and the meeting began by the introduction of Robert Blaisdell as Chairman.

A brass band on the platform played several lively airs, and then about thirty men and half a dozen women marched in and took seats opposite the musicians. The lights flared up and the meeting began by the introduction of Robert Blaisdell as Chairman.

A brass band on the platform played several lively airs, and then about thirty men and half a dozen women marched in and took seats opposite the musicians. The lights flared up and the meeting began by the introduction of Robert Blaisdell as Chairman.

A brass band on the platform played several lively airs, and then about thirty men and half a dozen women marched in and took seats opposite the musicians. The lights flared up and the meeting began by the introduction of Robert Blaisdell as Chairman.

THE HANGMAN VISITS CHAMBERS.

The Hangman called around at the Tombs prison yesterday, and was introduced to Miguel Chacon as a friend of Sheriff Grant who was curious to see him before the hanging.

The Hangman called around at the Tombs prison yesterday, and was introduced to Miguel Chacon as a friend of Sheriff Grant who was curious to see him before the hanging.

The Hangman called around at the Tombs prison yesterday, and was introduced to Miguel Chacon as a friend of Sheriff Grant who was curious to see him before the hanging.

The Hangman called around at the Tombs prison yesterday, and was introduced to Miguel Chacon as a friend of Sheriff Grant who was curious to see him before the hanging.

The Hangman called around at the Tombs prison yesterday, and was introduced to Miguel Chacon as a friend of Sheriff Grant who was curious to see him before the hanging.

The Hangman called around at the Tombs prison yesterday, and was introduced to Miguel Chacon as a friend of Sheriff Grant who was curious to see him before the hanging.

ENCOURAGING BOYCOTTING.

A MASS MEETING TO CONDEMN JUDGE BARRETT'S ACTION.

In answer to a call issued by the Central Labor Union, 2,500 men crowded into the big hall of Cooper Union last night. The purpose of the meeting, as announced by Robert Blaisdell, the Chairman, was to express the indignation of workmen against Judge Barrett and the jury who found the five men guilty of boycotting Thiel's saloon in Fourteenth street.

A brass band on the platform played several lively airs, and then about thirty men and half a dozen women marched in and took seats opposite the musicians. The lights flared up and the meeting began by the introduction of Robert Blaisdell as Chairman.

A brass band on the platform played several lively airs, and then about thirty men and half a dozen women marched in and took seats opposite the musicians. The lights flared up and the meeting began by the introduction of Robert Blaisdell as Chairman.

A brass band on the platform played several lively airs, and then about thirty men and half a dozen women marched in and took seats opposite the musicians. The lights flared up and the meeting began by the introduction of Robert Blaisdell as Chairman.

A brass band on the platform played several lively airs, and then about thirty men and half a dozen women marched in and took seats opposite the musicians. The lights flared up and the meeting began by the introduction of Robert Blaisdell as Chairman.

THE HANGMAN VISITS CHAMBERS.

The Hangman called around at the Tombs prison yesterday, and was introduced to Miguel Chacon as a friend of Sheriff Grant who was curious to see him before the hanging.

The Hangman called around at the Tombs prison yesterday, and was introduced to Miguel Chacon as a friend of Sheriff Grant who was curious to see him before the hanging.

The Hangman called around at the Tombs prison yesterday, and was introduced to Miguel Chacon as a friend of Sheriff Grant who was curious to see him before the hanging.

The Hangman called around at the Tombs prison yesterday, and was introduced to Miguel Chacon as a friend of Sheriff Grant who was curious to see him before the hanging.

The Hangman called around at the Tombs prison yesterday, and was introduced to Miguel Chacon as a friend of Sheriff Grant who was curious to see him before the hanging.

The Hangman called around at the Tombs prison yesterday, and was introduced to Miguel Chacon as a friend of Sheriff Grant who was curious to see him before the hanging.